Hot Topics 8 and 7:

Technology - Fairer outcomes and general participation

Use the image below to identify two advantages and then complete the exam question.

3. Suggest two advantages of modern technology on fair outcomes.

Advantage 1: Modern technology assists with _____

Advantage 2: Modern technology can be used to _____

Marks: [2]

17. Explain how modern technology is influencing general participation in sport.

Through increased opportunity such as the improvements in 4G surfaces or even inflatable domes which mean sports can be played throughout the winter. Through motivation because runners, say, enjoy the feedback that they get from apps like Strava and they aim for PBs. Through mass production such as full-carbon tennis rackets that are affordable for the general population. Finally, through accessibility such as electric hoists being used to increase disability participation in swimming.

Marks: [4]

In the answer above, one 'Explaining how' word has been used four times. Find it and then note down how the word is used in the answer.

The word is: _____

Its role is:

_____

Alternatives are: _____

Hot Topic 6: Relationship between sport and the media

12. Discuss the reasons why elite sports and the media develop relationships.

Sport and the media develop relationships as both parties are _____.

Media companies need sport in order to _____, often globally, to sports fans.

Elite sport need the _____, in order to _____ this money into growing the sport further.

Marks: [3]

Use the image below to answer the question above.

The question asked specifically about elite sport and media companies. Therefore, there will be no marks awarded directly for discussing the role of sponsors. Notice how this slightly changes the answer.
What if this was the question?:

Discuss the reasons why elite sport, and media companies and sponsors develop relationships.

Hot Topic 4: 21st century sport- globalisation

8. Explain how globalisation has changed the nature of association football since the end of the 20th Century.

Cheap flights mean people can travel all across the UK, Europe and even the world to spectate football matches such as Champions League or Club World cup.

Media companies provide far wider coverage from across the world.

Spectators can watch matches far more frequently than the traditional once-a-week on a Saturday.

Marks: [3]

Read the answer above and relate it to the table below.

Sport in the 21st Century: Globalisation
Media coverage	Freedom of movement	Greater exposure of people to sport
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● International events broadcast</li> <li>● Constant stream of sport entertainment</li> <li>● Media rights to sport is big business</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Performers can make money by leaving home and playing in the big leagues</li> <li>● Allure of the Premier League</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Increased viewing opportunity</li> <li>● Streaming of international sport content</li> <li>● Exposure to wider cultures</li> <li>● Western culture still dominates</li> <li>● Western culture dominating elsewhere</li> </ul>

Use these themes and apply to Association football when writing model answer.
